

PHILOSOPHY OF CCDC

No matter if you are short/tall big or small there is a place for all at Capital City Dance Center.

The studio is run on a positive high self-esteem structure. We believe every child should have "spot" in this world.

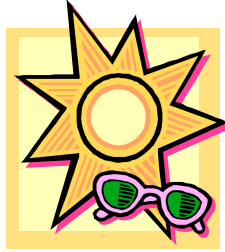

Dancers are placed not just according to age but ability too--Classes are kept to 8-14 per class--however we will over book in the beginning of the year to as many as 18. If necessary we will split the class at a later date.

The head teacher/Owner----Pam "PJ" White is a former Walt Disney World Dancer. She also holds a BFA from Colby-Sawyer College where she frequently is a guest choreographer and/or speaker. She is very active in community theatre and has her own family of dancers, Molly age 15 and Jordan age 12. The studio family extends to Ms Pam's Mom as secretary, Dad the accountant, husband Jeff-house manager, sister Sharon is a teacher and many family members help at recital.
